

FALL 2018

ICHTHUS

Greetings El Shaddai Emmaus Community,

As we say good-bye to the hot days of summer, we anticipate the beauty of autumn with its warm days, cool nights, colorful foliage, and of course, our Fall Walks at Clay City. This fall is very special to my husband, Jim, and me. We went on Walks 14 and 15 at the Clay City Free Methodist Campgrounds twenty-five years ago. Little did I know that when my sponsor took me to that little cabin in the woods that my life was about to be transformed forever! Jim had come back from his walk so excited and extra loving, so I knew this was going to be a great experience.

I remember the kindness of my table leader, Rhea Pell Hood, and assistant, Sharon Chevier. For Chatty Kathy, Thursday night was a sleepless one on those squeaky old bunk beds, but the evening of silence began a good work in me through the Lord's presence. My fellow pilgrims at the Table of Ruth were supportive and loving. In fact, one of them was a former student of mine when I did my student teaching, and another went on to be a weekend lay director and I served as her board rep!

The speakers ministered to me through the Emmaus talk points and carefully woven personal testimonies. It didn't take long for God to meet me in a very powerful way because I became a born-again Christian on Friday evening of my walk as I shared my personal story with the Weekend Spiritual Director, Myron James. Candlelight was a life-changing mountain-top experience for me providing insight to heaven's promises.

I will always be grateful for Weekend Lay Director, Jean Rowlings, and her team of servants. I couldn't wait to work a walk and began a life-long journey with the El Shaddai Emmaus Community. Over these twenty-five years, I've served in different capacities on 37 walks and flights and was blessed to be a weekend lay director on Walk #68 and Community Lay Director three times plus serving on the Emmaus board here and there. The friends that I have made over the years through Emmaus are for eternity.

The Walk to Emmaus is a defining weekend in the lives of over thousands of people in the El Shaddai community alone. This weekend helps us to unpack anything that keeps us from that closeness to Christ and then equips us to go back to our churches to serve with joy. It sure did with me, and I've been so happy serving in different capacities at my local church.

We praise the Lord for providing the pilgrims needed to host the men's fall walk. Our community of prayer warriors have defeated the enemy's plans once again. Thanks to all sponsors for responding so quickly. We'll see you at the campgrounds. Please keep our fall walk teams and pilgrims in your prayers.

Our El Shaddai board of directors will need four new folks to come on board. Men and women who have been lay directors, ALDs, and head positions would be great leaders on our board. Board members should be present at gatherings, walk weekends, and actively serve on 1-2 committees on the board. Is God tugging at your heart to serve? We will elect four new members at the November gathering.

El Shaddai is a family that keeps on growing bigger and bigger...making room for more. Thank you for showing Jesus to others so they will experience what we have through this wonderful tool. God bless you and stay connected in El Shaddai! I love this community and appreciate all of you!

Kathy Deal, C.L.D.

A WORD OF INSPIRATION FROM OUR COMMUNITY SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

As we consider this next set of walks that are just days away I am reminded of how often we read statements or recite words that we do not think about and therefore do NOT really mean. It has always been a concern when we regularly recite a prayer like the Lord's Prayer and do not really pay attention to the words that we learned so long ago that we no longer offer them prayerfully.... you know what I mean!!!

These words are rather carelessly offered to our creator God in remembrance of our Lord Jesus....so things like being forgiven as we forgive others is said, but the importance of that statement is so often not considered.

This is also my fear of the canon that we share as an Emmaus team member. I hope that each of us can read those words one line at a time and re-consider how important they are to the success of our weekend and the strength of our community.

Let's start with the first line: I am only one part of a complete being.... remember that every part of that being is necessary for it to function well. Each of those roles are needed to make a walk work!!! (read Romans 12 if you need a reminder of what that is about). The next phrase reminds us of our brokenness and our place as a servant. It is followed by a list of the fruit of the Spirit that we need in order to serve in humility: love, patience, kindness, gentleness and self-control are mentioned.... this is followed by a few other adjectives for a servant on an Emmaus team: committed, obedient and yielded I think that you are getting the idea.

Please take a moment; perhaps right now to ponder the importance of these things.... as God works through each of us. This canon/covenant continues with the reminder that others are the main reason for what we do and why we do it. "This team is more important than me".... "I" must be used as little as possible.... hard to do in a culture that constantly tells us otherwise; but remember what Jesus has called us to is a counter-cultural revolution!!!

Finally, I would like to remind us all that we also regularly agree that "In all things, I will accept and be obedient to the authority and discipline under which I serve." We all serve under the board of directors and the team leadership that has been chosen who receive their authority and direction from the Upper Room Walk to Emmaus. Please prayerfully think about the importance of the words we have been reciting as members of an Emmaus team. We want these experiences to bring about a transformation for each of us (pilgrims and team alike) that will bring glory to God and a renewal of our home churches....

May God bless each of you as you serve this community for Him....

DeColores,
Pastor Rick

A DIFFERENT TYPE of PRAYER WARRIOR OPPORTUNITY

Are you willing to sacrifice one-half hour to pray for Emmaus Walks, Chrysalis Flights, Kairos, and other related programs, both nationally and internationally?

If so, visit the following link to an on-line prayer vigil site where you will find prayer charts from around the world.

Future El Shaddai Community prayer charts may appear on this site at the discretion of the Walk Leadership.

WHAT DOES THE CANON OF THE EMMAUS TEAM MEAN TO YOU?

It was 128 walks ago. I sat in the Central Presbyterian Church admiring the woodwork and wishing I could hear Amazing Grace played on that awesome pipe organ. Walk 63, my first Emmaus team experience was the beginning of an amazing journey. One that will not end as long as I can stand and serve this wonderful community and movement known as the El Shaddai Walk to Emmaus.

I didn't know that the first moments of the team meeting would have a profound and life changing effect on me as they asked us to stand, open our folders and join in the reading of something known as the Canon of the Emmaus Team.

In case you were wondering, according to Webster's Dictionary a canon is "a law or code of laws established by a church council". In this case – the Upper Room. And in case you have never had the blessing of working on an Emmaus Team, the Emmaus Canon is something the entire team reads in unison at the beginning of each of the team meetings that take place in preparation for the upcoming Walks.

I was so moved by those words at that first reading that I kept re-reading them after I sat down. And I can honestly say that I have been just as moved each of the 125 times I have read them at team meetings. You see, they changed my life every bit as much as my pilgrim walk #48.

So, what did the Canon say that was so profound to me? Well, first it reminded me that I was not alone, but that I was part of a group of individuals drawn together, acting as one body, with one goal.

It reminded me that I am not perfect. That I had been called to serve others in humility and gratitude, with love, patience, kindness, gentleness and self-control in all things – including spoken words and actions.

That I was to pray each day asking God's guidance and revelation in my life and the lives of the pilgrims I had yet to meet.

I was not to be boastful or prideful, I had been called to serve others, not myself. They were more important than I.

I was reminded to always give God the glory in moments of excitement and joy, always remembering that the source of all joy is in Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. God was to get the glory for everything that would happen on the walk! I was to raise my voice in praise of Him and bow my head in reverence and submission to His will.

I was to recognize that He can use me more powerfully when I follow His will and not my own.

I have a responsibility to be obedient to God, the church, the team leadership, the El Shaddai Emmaus Board and the Upper Room.

And above all I should remember that "Christ is Counting on Me" and "I am Counting on Christ".

I realized in my excitement and enthusiasm to share what I had experienced with others that this Canon – this Covenant – could be applied not only to the Walk to Emmaus team experience, but to my whole life. I could apply it to my life at church, at work, within my family and friends. Is it always easy to do? No. But, as it says, I am an imperfect vessel, just waiting to be filled with the precious presence of God and then let that presence spill out to the world.

I can't tell you how many times I have gone back to team folders and read that Canon, times when I feel frustration, loss, fear, sadness, hopelessness. It was clear that the authors of this amazing piece of writing were deep in prayer and deep in God's written words, you can hear the scriptures speak in the printed words of the Canon.

When you stand in a church sanctuary with 70 other people and join in the reading you truly know you are not alone, you are part of something bigger than life itself.

Whether it is the first, second or one hundredth and twenty fifth time you read the poetic words of that amazing document, please, remember that they are more than just mere words on paper, something that we do as tradition, they are to be taken to heart, to be remembered, cherished and lived out every day. They are words of Covenant between you, your fellow team members, the pilgrims, the Emmaus Board, The Upper Room and above all God. As you read it consider it as a personally written love letter and a call to service from Jesus to you.

In Christian Love,
Rita Steed, Walk #48 Table of Ruth

COMMUNITY WE NEED YOUR ASSISTANCE:

One of the first duties of an incoming Lay Director is to assemble a list of possible team members for approval by the team selection committee. There should be at least 125 names on that list. Why so many, you may ask, when a full team consists of approximately seventy members.

The ideal situation would be for the Lay Director to go to the committee with at least seventy or so completed applications in hand for approval. But that is never the case.

The lay director and assistant lay directors sit in meetings with their board representative and spiritual director and brain storm names of possible team members who might be available to work the walk. After team selection has reviewed and approved the list the real fun begins. Seeking out phone numbers or e-mail addresses to contact those prospects.

PLEASE, if you are feeling led to work an upcoming walk submit those applications NOW! Pray about it, look at the dates, don't worry about asking the boss for time off – just mail in those applications and wait for a phone call, which will come much sooner because they now have a number. If you are unable to work when the call comes that's quite all right, you can always decline.

Please receive this request in the light-hearted spirit in which it is being written. But, keep those applications coming, the sooner – the better. Lay Directors everywhere thank you!

WITH SPECIAL THANKS AND LOVE

For many years Joe Wilkinson and his lovely wife Debbie brought the Light of Christ into the conference room and prayer chapel of the El Shaddai Emmaus Walks.

When Debbie went home to be with the Lord, Joe continued the ministry that meant so much to Debbie.

But, as with all things in life there comes a season when we must pass the torch to someone else. Walk 191 will be the final time that the Wilkinson family will be fulfilling this task for our community.

Our prayers are with Joe and his family as they are remembered for their faithful service and we wish him health and wellness in the days ahead.

De Colores, Joe, may your Fourth Days be Blessed!

A WORD ABOUT REGISTRATION

Our registrars work diligently to review applications and mail out timely notices. Good sponsorship includes reviewing and making sure that your pilgrim and sponsor applications are complete. They have provided a few suggestions to help us help them.

1. Applications can only be processed if both the front and back page are completed and the $35.00 deposit included. (There have been instances where shirt size, sponsors walk number and community (if not El Shaddai), and male or female information have been omitted. Please – leave no blank unfilled.
2. Please use only blue or black ink, printing legibly so all letters and numbers are clear.
3. Please advise if your pilgrim has dietary or special needs in order for the team to be prepared to address those needs.
4. Always include your walk number and Community name (if other than El Shaddai) next to your name on the sponsor's portion of the application.
5. When you receive your sponsor letter, your pilgrim should have their letter. Please contact them to verify and answer any questions they may have. If you are unsure of the answer to their questions, please contact Nancy or Sue. Verify that they have returned their card and if not encourage them to do so

Thank you for helping us help you, Nancy Frederick and Sue Bass-Harmon, registrars

COMMUNITY – WE WANTED YOU TO KNOW....

El Shaddai Makes Needed Replacement Purchases

Recently, our community realized two things. One, our radios were failing at a very high rate and we would not even make it thru a walk with enough functional radios to work the walk efficiently. Two, the Chrysalis Log (CHA) trailer was leaking badly and could not be repaired economically.

Since God has blessed our community financially, the board was able to address these two issues.

We decided to purchase all new radios and headsets (upgraded headsets). This also allowed us to donate the old radios to the Methodist Campground to use for their summer camps. They were so grateful for the gift.

We were also running out of space in our CHA trailer, so our Board and Chrysalis together agreed to purchase a new trailer for our Emmaus Walks that had increased space and then pass on our current trailer to Chrysalis. This was a win-win for both.

God continues to be so faithful to our community and provide for our needs!

WARM WISHES AND MANY THANKS

We want to this opportunity to wish a happy retirement to Mike Fowler and his lovely wife Alberta as they pass the torch of their Saturday Agape dinner duties to a new regime.

They have been faithful servants through rain, snow, sleet, hail, heat and sunshine for many years. Mike invited the ladies and gentlemen to “come on in” while “Berty” was making sure those dinner plates came out just right. We simply want to say “well done good and faithful servants! Enjoy your ‘retirement’. We will be looking for you at the gatherings and candle lights.

And we also welcome new emcees Bob Burton and Patrick Killeen who have volunteered to fill these duties. Bob has been Mike’s backup several times and Pat will be making his debut at the Fall Walks. Thanks, fellows; we know you will do a fantastic job.
